Brand revamp and macro tailwinds to take Bata to new highs

Bata, the leading footwear manufacturer is witnessing secular growth across segments and improvement in margins led by premiumisation and lower than expected increase in rental expenses. BATA witnessed a strong Revenue / EBITDA CAGR of 8.1% / 30.8% over FY17-FY19.

Bata continues to remain a debt free company and its cash and cash equivalents increased from 522 crores in FY17 to 840 crores in FY19 and are 34% of the total balance sheet.

India: BATA's growth engine

India contributes 16% of BATA's worldwide revenues and is 2nd only to Italy. It looks like the company is set to drive growth from sales in Asia with India being at the forefront due to various growth drivers like, demographics, improving GDP, increasing spending capacity, low share or organized footwear manufacturers and many others.

Robust growth for projected for footwear

Indian footwear industry's size is currently ~Rs. 53000 crores. This is expected to increase at 11% CAGR and increase to Rs. 72000 crores by 2022. India remains the second largest footwear manufacturer in the world and the third largest footwear consumer behind China & USA. More than 80% of footwear produced in India is consumed domestically and the domestic pie itself is increasing with entry of premium formal, casual & sports brands. Bata being having the widest network amongst footwear manufacturers' is in the right spot to capitalize on this opportunity.

Increased ANP expenditure

Bata have increased their expenditure on Advertising & Promotion in FY19 to lay greater emphasis on casual & fashionable footwear. They have also signed Kriti Sanon & Sushant Singh Rajput as their brand ambassadors who have popularity amongst the youth who are the ideal target market for their new Red label collection. Advertising & promotion expense for FY17 was 24 crores representing 1% of sales. This has increased to 66 crores in FY19 representing 2.3% of sales.

Sale of branded products expected to increase significantly in Tier II & Tier III Cities

70% of Indian population resides in rural areas. But urban areas account for 67% of total demand. Also urban cities are brand centric and hence the share of branded footwear is much higher in urban cities. Tier II & III cities are now catching up and hence the overall sales from these cities is expected to go up. Moreover the share of branded footwear is 45% and unorganized is 55%. As Tier II & III cities become brand centric, the wallet share for branded footwear is expected to substantially and Bata is expected to be major beneficiary due to its wide network presence. Bata has an unparallel retail network with a total network of 1375 stores as of FY18 while the second player in the industry is far behind at 799 stores.

Footwear Stores In India 2018

Online sales to grow in double digits

Bata's online have helped them sell 15 lakh pairs in FY19. The volume number is up a staggering 68% since FY18 when the sale was 8.9 lakh pairs and sales is up 36%. Total revenue generated from online sales is Rs. 120 crores in FY19 as against Rs. 87.9 crores in FY18. Online sale is expected to increase to 15% of total sales by FY22 and will be of great benefit for the branded footwear players. Bata has tied up with all leading e-commerce players like Amazon, Flipkart, Myntra & Jabong. They also have presence on high-traffic generating websites including TataCliq, ShopClues, Limeroad etc. Besides this, they have also improved their own e-commerce website to add to the sales through other online channels.

Growth from focus brands

Bata is leveraging on strong brand brands like Hush Puppies, Bubblegummers & Power. They have signed Smriti Mandhana as a brand ambassador for Power. Power is the sports brand and the response to sports brands across the country is encouraging. Bubblegummers is a brand to cater to the kids. They have tied up with Disney for designing their product. These include casual shoes, canvas shoes and Ballerinas to everyday wear sandals & chappals. Our country has a huge demographic of kids under the age of 10 being 18% of the total population so Bubblegummers can contribute meaningful revenues going ahead.

Hush Puppies was launched for premium men's wear and urban market being its target audience when it was launched. However, increasing spending power, brand acceptance in Tier II & Tier III cities, market created due to e-commerce players and Bata's wide network has given Hush Puppies a wider market to cater to.
